

COVID-19: extra help organizations

During these uncertain times, you might know someone who needs help finding extra assistance with food, tutoring, transportation or jobs. Check out this website to locate organizations that provide assistance with these items and more:

<https://www.myamerigroup.com/dc/support/community-support.html>.

Follow the link above and enter the relevant ZIP code. You will then see different categories of food, health care, housing, transportation, etc. Select the category you are interested in viewing, and a list of available organizations will appear. Since many offices are impacted by COVID-19, please give them a call to make sure they are open.

This website is open to all to use.

The screenshot shows the Amerigroup website's 'Community Support' page. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Benefits', 'Care', 'Support', and 'Your Account'. Below this, the 'Community Support' section includes a 'Community Resource Link' search box with a 'Zip' input field and a 'Search' button. To the right, there are 'Community Events' listed, such as 'Washington DC Events' and 'Amerigroup Wellness Center Events'.

A large banner in the center of the page reads: 2925 programs serve people in Washington, DC (20002). Below the banner, it says 'Type a search term, or pick a category'. A navigation bar below the banner lists various service categories: FOOD, HOUSING, DC/DCB, TRANSIT, HEALTH, MONEY, CARE, EDUCATION, WORK, and LEGAL.

The bottom part of the screenshot shows a search results page for 'Washington, DC (20002) food pantry'. It displays a list of providers with details for 'District Emergency Assistance by Salvation Army National Capital Area Command'. The details include a COVID-19 response program note, a description of the service, and a 'Next Steps' section with contact information: '4.13 miles (Serves your local area) 1434 Harvard Street Northwest, Washington, DC 20009'. It also shows the current status: 'Open Now: 9:00am - 5:00pm'.
