

You are invited!

Amerigroup Washington, Inc. presents: Provider Network Town Hall

Amerigroup wants to invite you to an open communications session.

Beginning in 2021, we are offering a quarterly Town Hall for our network providers. These sessions will provide updates on important topics such as claim system configuration updates, as well as informational topics around prior authorizations, disputes/appeals, and provider data management. Most importantly, this is a space created for you to ask questions, provide feedback, and address any open issues that you may need resolved. Please join us!

Who should attend:

- Provider agency leadership
- Operations leadership and billing staff
- Patient account representatives
